TROJAN

THE 1954 TROJAN

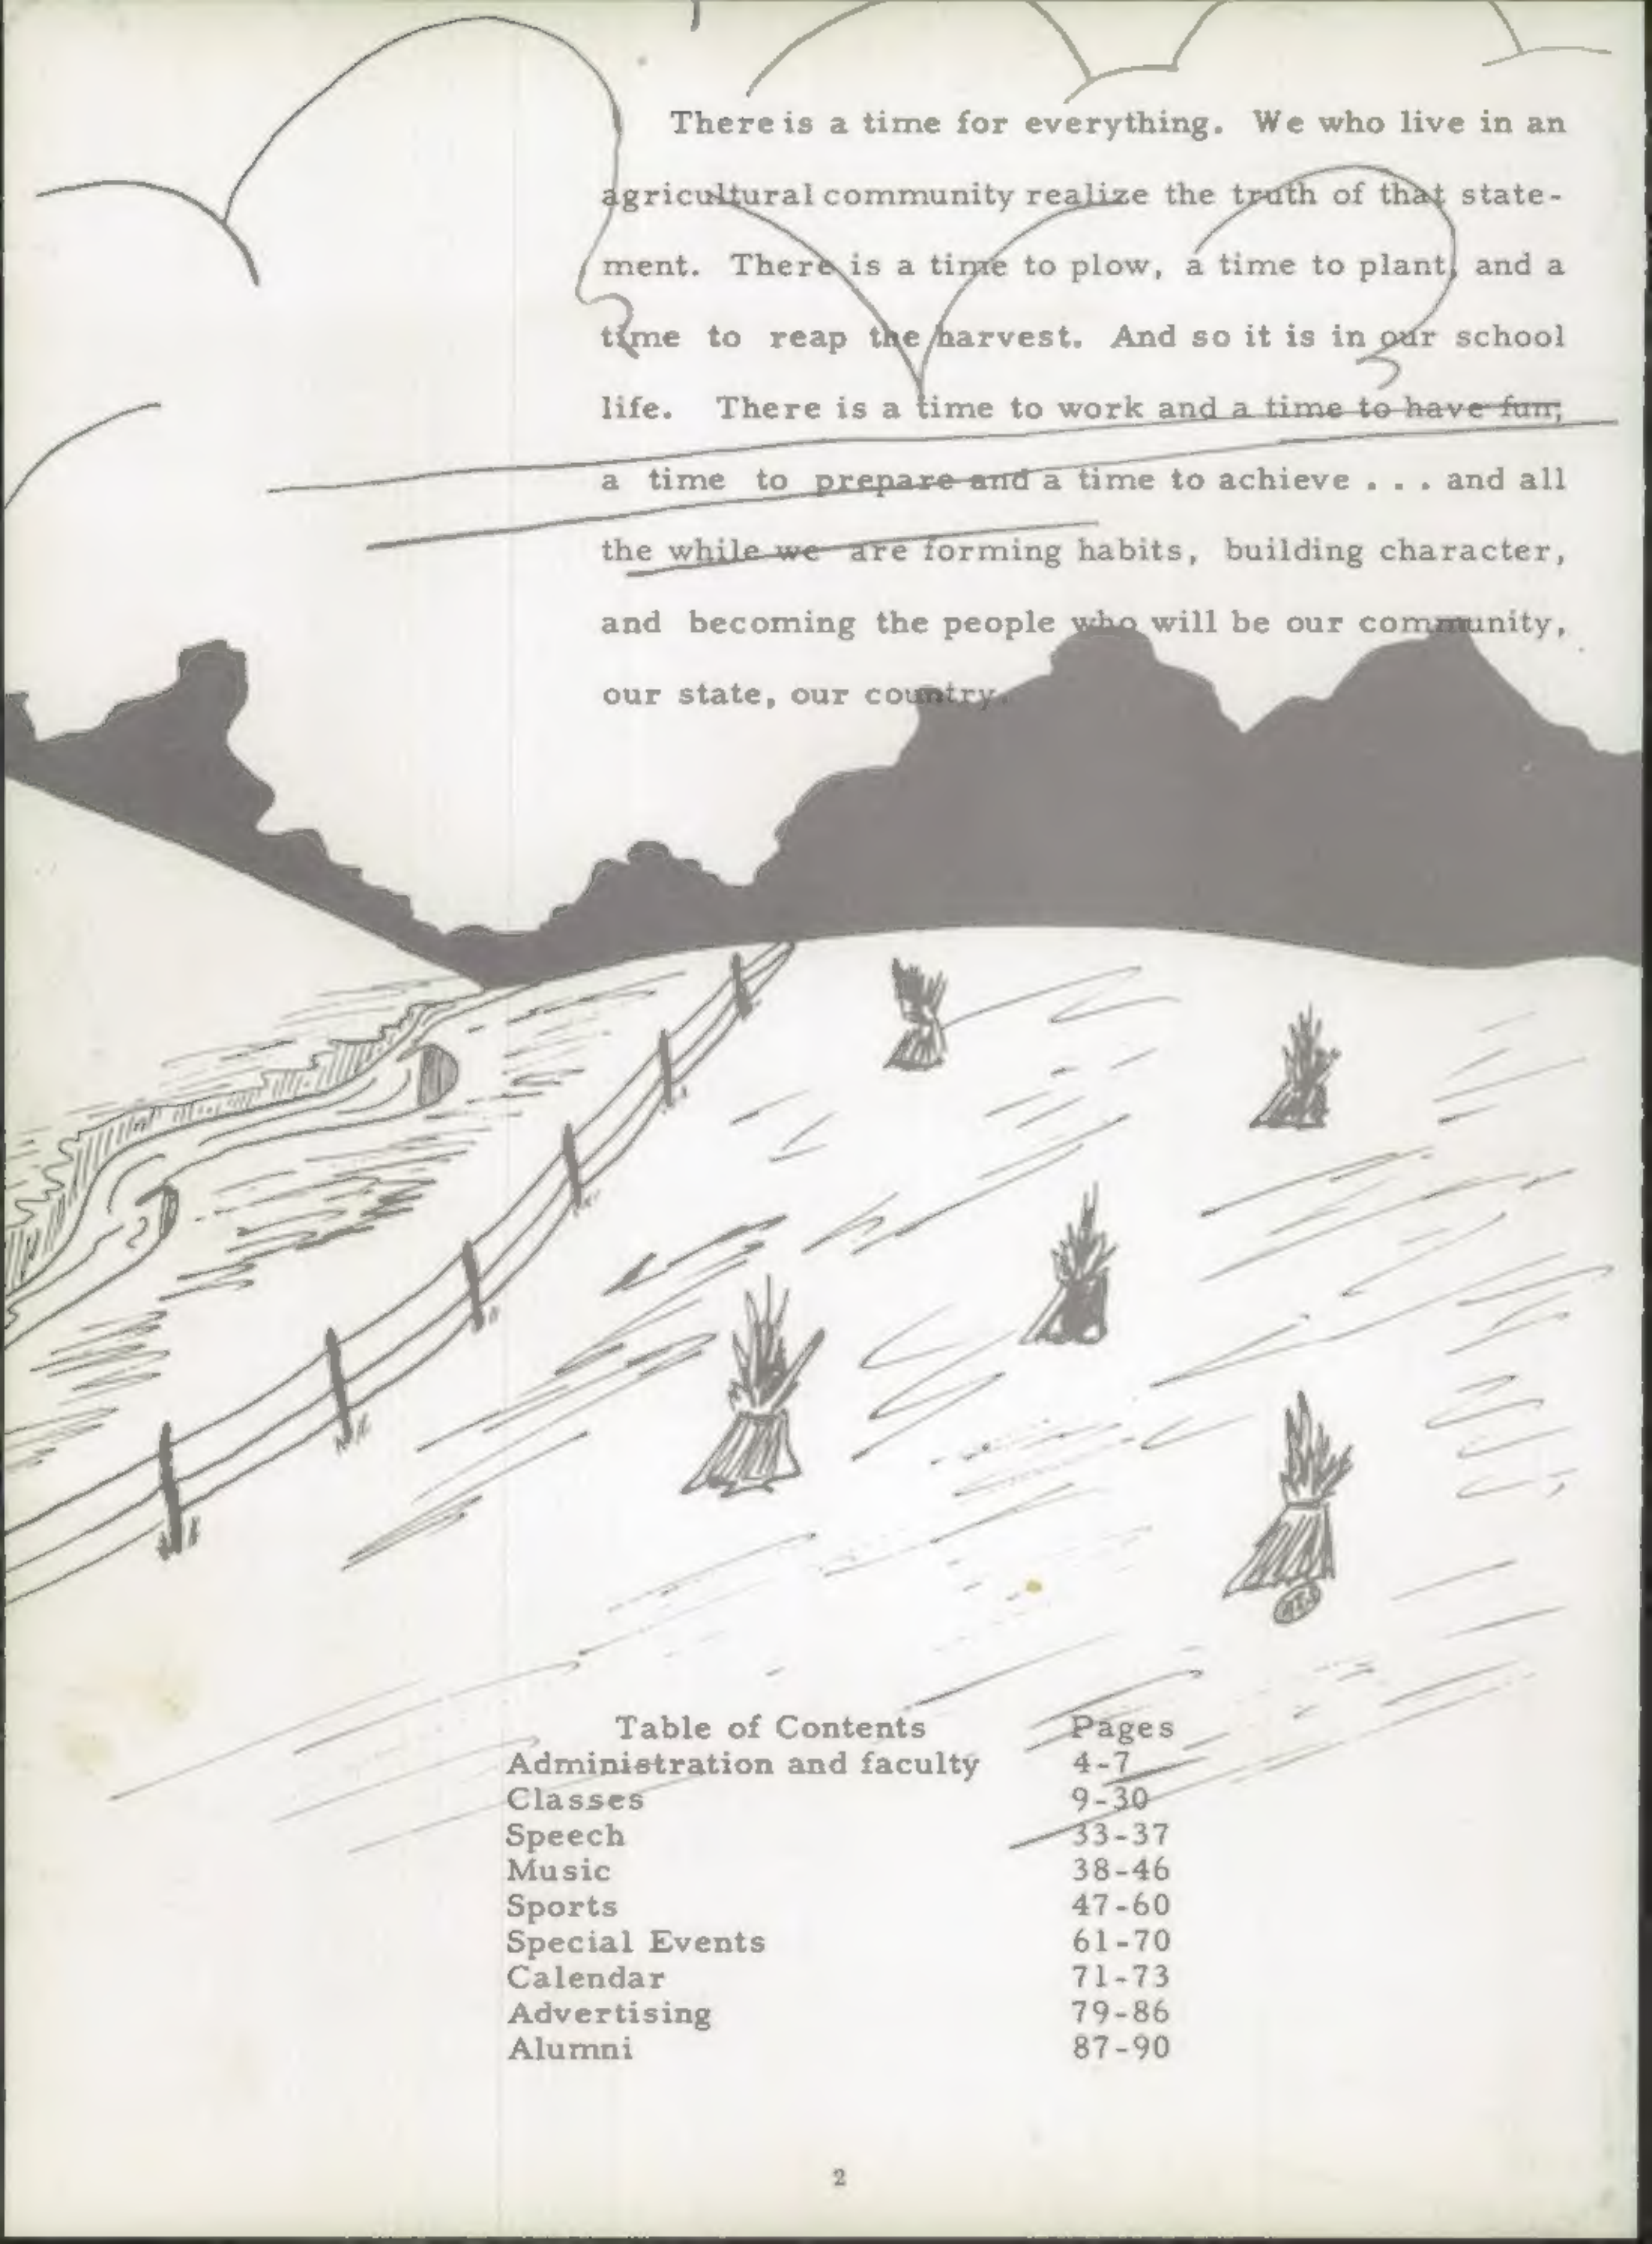

EDITED BY

THE SENIOR CLASS

OF

ODEBOLT, IOWA

There is a time for everything. We who live in an agricultural community realize the truth of that statement. There is a time to plow, a time to plant, and a time to reap the harvest. And so it is in our school life. There is a time to work and a time to have fun, a time to prepare and a time to achieve . . . and all the while we are forming habits, building character, and becoming the people who will be our community, our state, our country.

In a community such as ours, as the farmer prospers so does the town. We are ever mindful of the strong link between the farm and the town which, working together, make up our community. The Senior Class takes pleasure therefore, in dedicating its edition of the Trojan to the farmers who have contributed so much toward the building of our school and our community.

Just as a farmer cultivates his fields, so a school through the instrumentality of its ADMINISTRATION and its FACULTY cultivates ideas, character, temperament, in its pupils.

HOT LUNCH COOKS

Just as the soil, the rain, the sun, and the care given by the farmer all combine to develop the seed in the fields, so do school environment, class associates, the world of books and the work of the teacher act to develop the children sent to the school from the homes in the community. The Senior Class is the product of ~~thirteen years~~ of such development.

1954 CLASS HISTORY

No matter how hesitantly we walked through the doors of the school building the first time, we soon fell into a pattern with Miss Kelch, our kindergarten teacher. There were 28 of us to eat graham crackers and rest on our rugs on the floor. They were Lola Albrecht, Roger Barkley, Norman Bengford, Joan Casserly, Shirley Einspahr, Patricia Evans, Dale Gardner, Colleen Higby, Joanne Hummel, Gene Johnson, Janice Kipp, John Krusenstjerna, Ronald Meals, Donald Murr, Yvonne Neville, Larry Noon, Glenene Peck, Nancy Rector, Dean Richardson, Janet Roose, Jean Stock, Richard Treman, Janice Turin, Dean Wardrip, Vernon Ludwig, Patricia Weitzel, and Shirley Venzke. We had a chapel, and a grocery store which we were very disappointed to find was stocked with imitation candy!

But we were destined for harder studies and longer hours, so 26 of us gathered at Miss Aden's knee to learn something in first grade. Missing this year were Norman Bengford, Joan Casserly, Dale Gardner, Gene Johnson, Donald Murr, Larry Noon, Janet Roose, and Patricia Weitzel, but Dean Johnson, Tommy Meehan, Robert Pierce, and Pat Sorensen joined us in pinning a handkerchief to our blouse or shirt, and standing for daily inspection.

Going into second grade, we lost six of our number: Lola Albrecht, Ronald Meals, Nadine Noyd, Glenene Peck, Tommy Meehan, and Robert Pierce but the loss was lessened by the addition of Ronald Bihrer and Larry Johnson. Miss Swanson helped us this year as we struggled with our ABC's.

We were greeted by Miss Barber when we crossed the hall into the third grade. There were some who advanced further than others in reading and so proudly sat in the first reading group. The rest of us sat in the second. This year we gained none and lost Vernon Ludwig, Jean Stock, and Shirley Venzke.

Upon entering the fourth grade, Miss Charlson told us that we had lost Patricia Evans and Dean Wardrip but added to our number was Kay Summerville, Marcell Hedberg, and Larry Purcell. The highlight of the year came when we all gathered around the heater in the hall and sang Christmas carols. We also learned the parts of the ear.

With Miss Jentzen to read to us and guide our studies we advanced on through the fifth grade. We gained three this year: Herman Sorensen, John Carlton, and Shirley Millison, and lost five: Dean Johnson, Pat Sorensen, Kay Summerville, Marcell Hedberg, and Larry Purcell. Now we numbered only sixteen. We got sort of tired of climbing up on the fire escape in a fire drill, but it was fun too!

In sixth grade, Miss Benning had to cope with the problem of the boys and girls not mixing or even speaking, but she knew we'd soon get over that! Absent this year was John Carlton, but the new faces were Dean Wardrip, Terry Roberts, Marvin Schramm, LaVon Finger, Nadine Noyd, and Janice Wilkin.

The following year we were greeted by the eighth and ninth graders to join them in Junior High. This year we found things much different--extra curricular activities, class parties, study hall, and those unmentionable citizenship marks! We lost two: Larry Johnson and Janice Wilkin. We gained Raymond Albrecht, Keith McDonough, Dale Richardson, Robert Konradi, Marilyn Hoefling, Marilyn Schulz, Nancy Scott, Elaine Stehr, and Jean Stock.

The eighth grade was pretty much the same as the seventh grade except for the loss of Ronald Bihrer, Dean Wardrip, Shirley Mallison, Marvin Schramm, Terry Roberts, Robert Konradi, and Tobianne Chaffee. Those added were Margaret Einspahr, Janice Godbersen, Norma Luitjens, John Miller, Vernon Olberding, and George Roeder.

The next thing we knew were we freshman, though still in junior high, but taking part in high school activities, chorus groups, dramatics, FFA, and athletics. From country schools, and parochial school, and other towns, we added to our class roll Charles Bauer, Norman Bengford, Donna Linden, Sheila Meents, Elaine Miller, Marilyn Reising, Neva Schroeder, Elaine Schwaller, Jeanette Peterson, James Taphorn, and Duane Veit. This year we lost Herman Sorensen and Raymond Albrecht.

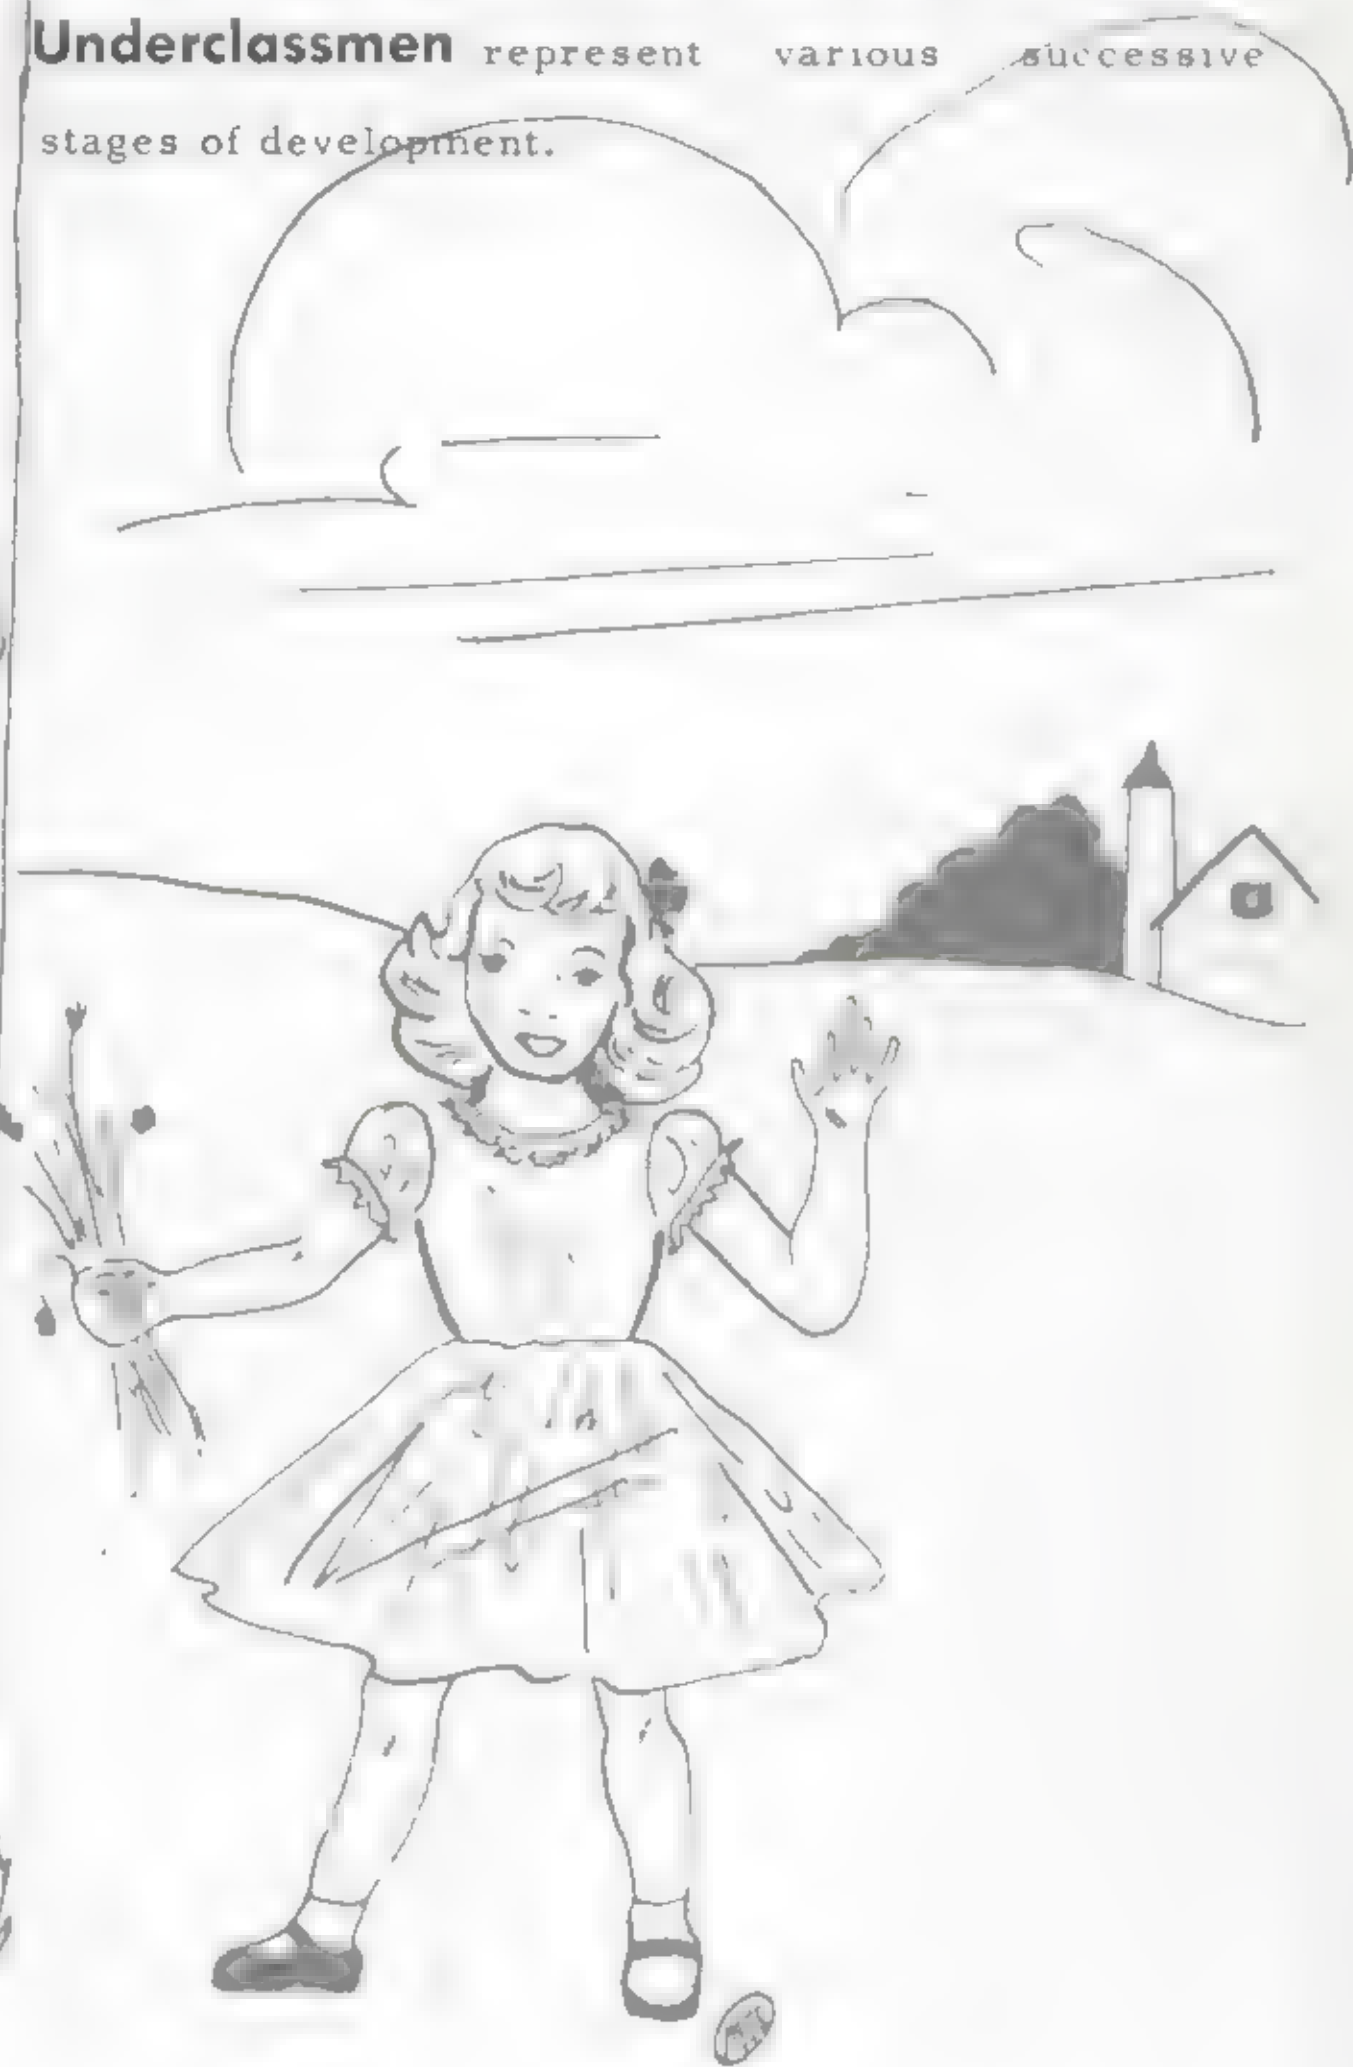

Our Sophomore year made us feel we were really in high school now, for we were moved into the senior high building. Now we had more privileges, our own lockers, and home rooms. We lost none in the transfer, and gained Wanda Calvin and Glenavon Korth, who transferred to another school during the year.

Our Junior year is remembered by our class play, selling at games, selection of class rings, and the main event--the junior-senior banquet. We lost Vernon Olberding, but added five to our list: Vernon King, Terry Roberts, Rodney Moller, Frances Ogren, and Verlee Mott. Rodney Moller and Dale Richardson dropped out in the middle of the year.

The senior year brings us to the end of our high school journey together. Verlee Mott transferred to Arthur at Christmas time and we gained none to make our final total 37. Those who traveled all thirteen years together are Roger Barkley, Shirley Einspahr, Colleen Higby, Joanne Hummel, Janice Kipp, John Krusenstjerna, Yvonne Neville, Nancy Rector, Dean Richardson, Richard Treman, and Janice Turin. Each one of us will now go a separate way but will always cherish memories of the fun we had, the friendships formed, and those who guided the class along the way.

Just as the farmer must exercise patience, realizing that he cannot hasten nature, so must the school work and wait to see the results of its labors. As a crop matures, so does a child grow and develop. The Underclassmen represent various successive stages of development.

We're almost there. We are now only one rung from the top of the ladder. We're still below those high and mighty seniors, but not for long. We can hardly wait until next year when we will be the top dogs, and command the respect of the poor underclassmen.

We have a large class of forty-nine, with the numbers of boys and girls being about equal. Eleven of our number comprised the cast of our class play, "The Inner Willy." At Homecoming, Jeanine Buehler and Emily Bergman represented the Junior class in the royal party. Our activities have been varied, and we have contributed many outstanding members to the football, basketball, and track teams. Also, we are well represented in declam work. A large number of our members belong to the instrumental and vocal large groups. Also, many are active in both instrumental and vocal solos and small ensembles. The Junior-Senior Banquet was our big job this year. We paid the bills by selling food at basketball games in our sophomore year and at football games this year.

The first semester Roger Kies was our top class official, with Patsy Horstman handling the vice-president's job, and Bob Hummel writing the minutes and taking care of our finances.

The second semester Marilyn Landgraf took over as president, assisted by LaDon Hoefling and Jeanine Buehler as vice-president and secretary-treasurer respectively. Our class sponsors for the year are Mrs. Olson and Mr. Ferguson.

We are all anticipating a good time next year as seniors, and we will try our best to be worthy of that high position. We are hoping to deserve and get the support of everyone as the CLASS OF "55".

SOPHOMORES

Here we are--the Class of "56"! In our first year in the new building we had twenty-seven of our thirty-five members participating in extra-curricular activities. Among them were "Regulars" in football and basketball, members of the band, mixed chorus and glee clubs, and some as yet unknown in declamatory work and track which are still ahead of us.

Judy McDonough was our class president throughout the year. For the first semester Marlene Snyder was our vice-president and Rollyn Stehr, secretary-treasurer. For the second semester Shirley Rohlf and Bob Girvan were our vice-president and secretary-treasurer respectively. Mr. Shaw and Mr. Lynn were our class sponsors. You'll hear much of us in the two years remaining for us at O. H. S.

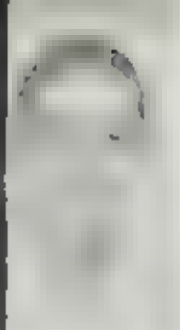

FRESHMEN

We, the Class of "57", have only three more years in which to complete our search for knowledge in O. H. S. The first semester, we were led by Clifford Schroeder who was assisted by Larry Koster, Don Taylor, and Othel Johnson. Ronnie Snyder, Don Taylor, Norma Stiles, and Kyle McGonigle, were our officers the second semester. Mr. Potter was our class sponsor.

Our class was well represented in all school activities. We are proud of all the boys and girls who took part in Junior High sports as well as those who were capable of representing us on the high school basketball teams.

At this time we want to give credit to those who participated in marching band, concert band, small groups and solos, vocal music and various branches of declamatory work.

There are thirty-seven of us--and we are mighty. Keep your eye on the class of "57".

PHYSICS is an elective subject offered alternate years with Chemistry for Junior and Senior students. This course is important because of the practical applications the student can make of what he learns as well as because it is a preparatory course for prospective college students.

STENOGRAPHY comprises advanced typing and shorthand together with a semester of office practice. For several years, the seniors enrolled in the stenography course have taken Federal and Iowa Civil Service tests in the spring. The school does not actually conduct a placement bureau, but it has been highly successful in fitting its graduates into jobs in this and neighboring communities.

VOCATIONAL AGRICULTURE is a nation-wide federally planned program of systematic instruction in agriculture. It is under a plan cooperatively sponsored by State Boards of Education and the United States Office of Education. An integral part of the course is the F. F. A., a non-profit, non-political farm youth organization of voluntary membership designed to take its place along with other agencies striving for the development of leadership, the building of a more permanent agriculture, and the improvement of country life.

In a study of ENGLISH LITERATURE, the students' interest is stirred to the consideration of the enduring values in human life which are expressed in literature and which are our heritage. Here, too, he may develop practical habits and skills in reading and writing. A deep satisfaction and a rich reward come to a student from the hours spent in the study of literature.

BOOKKEEPING is an elective course for one or two semesters in the senior year. In the first semester the student gets a thorough grounding in the basic bookkeeping cycle. The second semester's work includes use of business forms in a practice set, preparation of Income Tax Returns, and handling of such adjustments as might be expected of a Junior Accountant.

The VOCATIONAL HOMEMAKING classes aim to teach home-making and management to help the students gain a better understanding of children and family relationships so that they will be responsible citizens of their communities.

ECONOMICS is a science, or systematic study, of matters related to the business of man's making a living. The primary emphasis is to explain the numerous aspects of a man's responsibilities in the production, consumption, exchange, and distribution of goods.

GOVERNMENT is an authority exercised through a given channel over the lives and affairs of a given body of people. The primary purpose of a course in government is to develop a better understanding of functions of the governing body of our nation and to emphasize our responsibilities as citizens.

Just as competition makes for better farming practices, so does it heighten interest in some phases of school life and make for excellence in performance. The farmer takes his produce to the county and the state fairs where it is judged in comparison with other similar produce, the school takes its pupils to Music and Speech sectional, district, and state contests to be judged in competition with students from other schools. The farmer endeavors to raise the best specimen of a certain crop; the school, to develop its students to the highest point which they are capable of reaching.

ONE ACT PLAY

"The Plum Tree", a drama by Mary Ellen Chase, was chosen this year as our contest play. The action, which takes place in the office of Angelina Norton, matron of the Home for Aged Women, concerns the efforts of Miss Norton and "Davy", her nurse, to soften the shock of their three elderly guests when they are committed to the State Hospital that afternoon. "Davy" plans a tea party, with the "Seventies" help, and the ladies are brought together for a few happy minutes. The plan is climaxed with the arrival of the Hospital car and the ladies leave, composed and dignified.

This year, Odebolt, along with many other Iowa schools participated in a public forum in which three members of the student body represented the school. The program was recorded on November 25 in the Odebolt auditorium, and was broadcast on a later date by radio station WNAX in Sioux City.

The panel members were Frances Ogren, Jean Stock, and Janice Turin; the topic, "How to Elect the President of the United States." Frances advocated the election of the President by the Congress; Jean maintained that election should be by direct vote of the people; and Janice recommended election by a reformed electoral college. Following each speech there was a period of audience participation in which anyone was given a chance to direct questions pertaining to the topic to any of the panel members.

On March 22, the girls took part in a joint panel discussion with Sioux Center on a television program over KVTU in Sioux City. The topic of the discussion was "Is the American High School Doing Its Job?" John Schmidt served as moderator on both the radio and television programs. Mr. Shaw, Odebolt speech director, accompanied the group to Sioux City and also gave them very valuable assistance.

MARCHING BAND

The music season got underway last fall with the performance of the marching band at every home football game. The band performed at the Odebolt-Manilla game which was Manilla's Homecoming and also took part in the crowning of the queen. The band made a fine showing under the very able leadership of Darlene Paul with a staff of twirlers. Honors were won at Popcorn Lay at Ida Grove, and a trophy acknowledging the fact was presented to the school.

Tryouts for all-state band and orchestra were held at Spencer and the following band members made the trip to Des Moines for the annual All-State Music Festival: Charles Mandernach, Darlene Paul, and David Schaefer, all of whom occupied principal chairs.

The concert season opened with a concert given by the Beginners Band in which 47 members participated. The Senior band, consisting of 50 members, gave their annual Christmas concert. At the basketball games, everyone enjoyed the tunes from the pep band. 40 band members participated in the County Band at Sac City in February which was a part of the annual County Music Festival.

Something new was added this year, a joint concert was given at a adjoining town with their band, and later that band gave a joint concert with us at Odebolt. The 'Battle of the Bands' was with Danbury this year. After each concert, a period of recreation followed.

In the late spring another concert was held at which time awards were given to outstanding individuals in instrumental music. This marked the close of the high school instrumental activities for 17 graduating seniors.

The Band Boosters lent their help, and advice in all matters and were greatly appreciated.

Roger Barkley--Center. "Rodge" worked hard to improve on his speed. He will be remembered because of his execution of the "Barkley Special."

Norman Bengford--Guard. "Norm" was an all around workhorse for the team. All State honorable mention.

Dean Richardson--End. "Dean" was the sparkplug of the team. His spirit and determination were contagious. His career was cut short because of a knee injury received in the Sac game.

Terry Roberts--End. Terry was of slight build, yet stout of heart. Was the second leading scorer of the team.

John Miller--Guard. John usually led the defensive team when he was in there. His season was broken up also because of a knee injury and he missed the Manilla and Sac games.

Jim Taphorn--Fullback. Probably the lightest man to play fullback for Odebolt for some time. He scored twice intercepting a pass for one.

Keith McDonough--Quarterback. Keith performed capably in his duty to call signals and handle the ball on offense. He completed 52 passes out of 129 attempts--a good 40%.

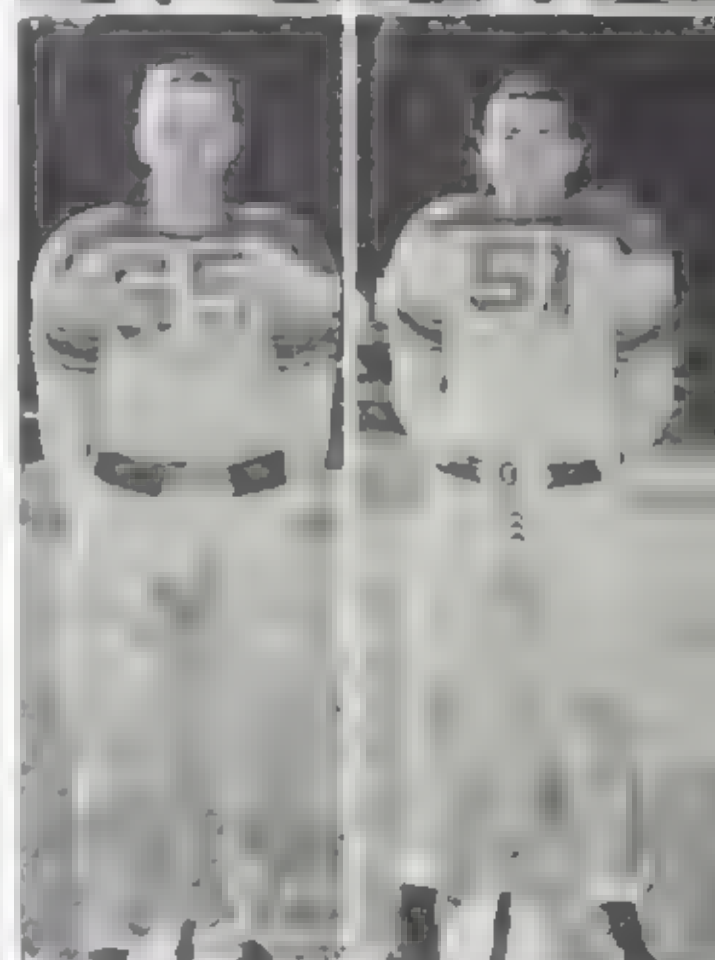

Richard Treman--Center. Although "Rich" saw limited action in the varsity games, he saw and met the challenge of contact in some tough reserve ball games. He was very dependable.

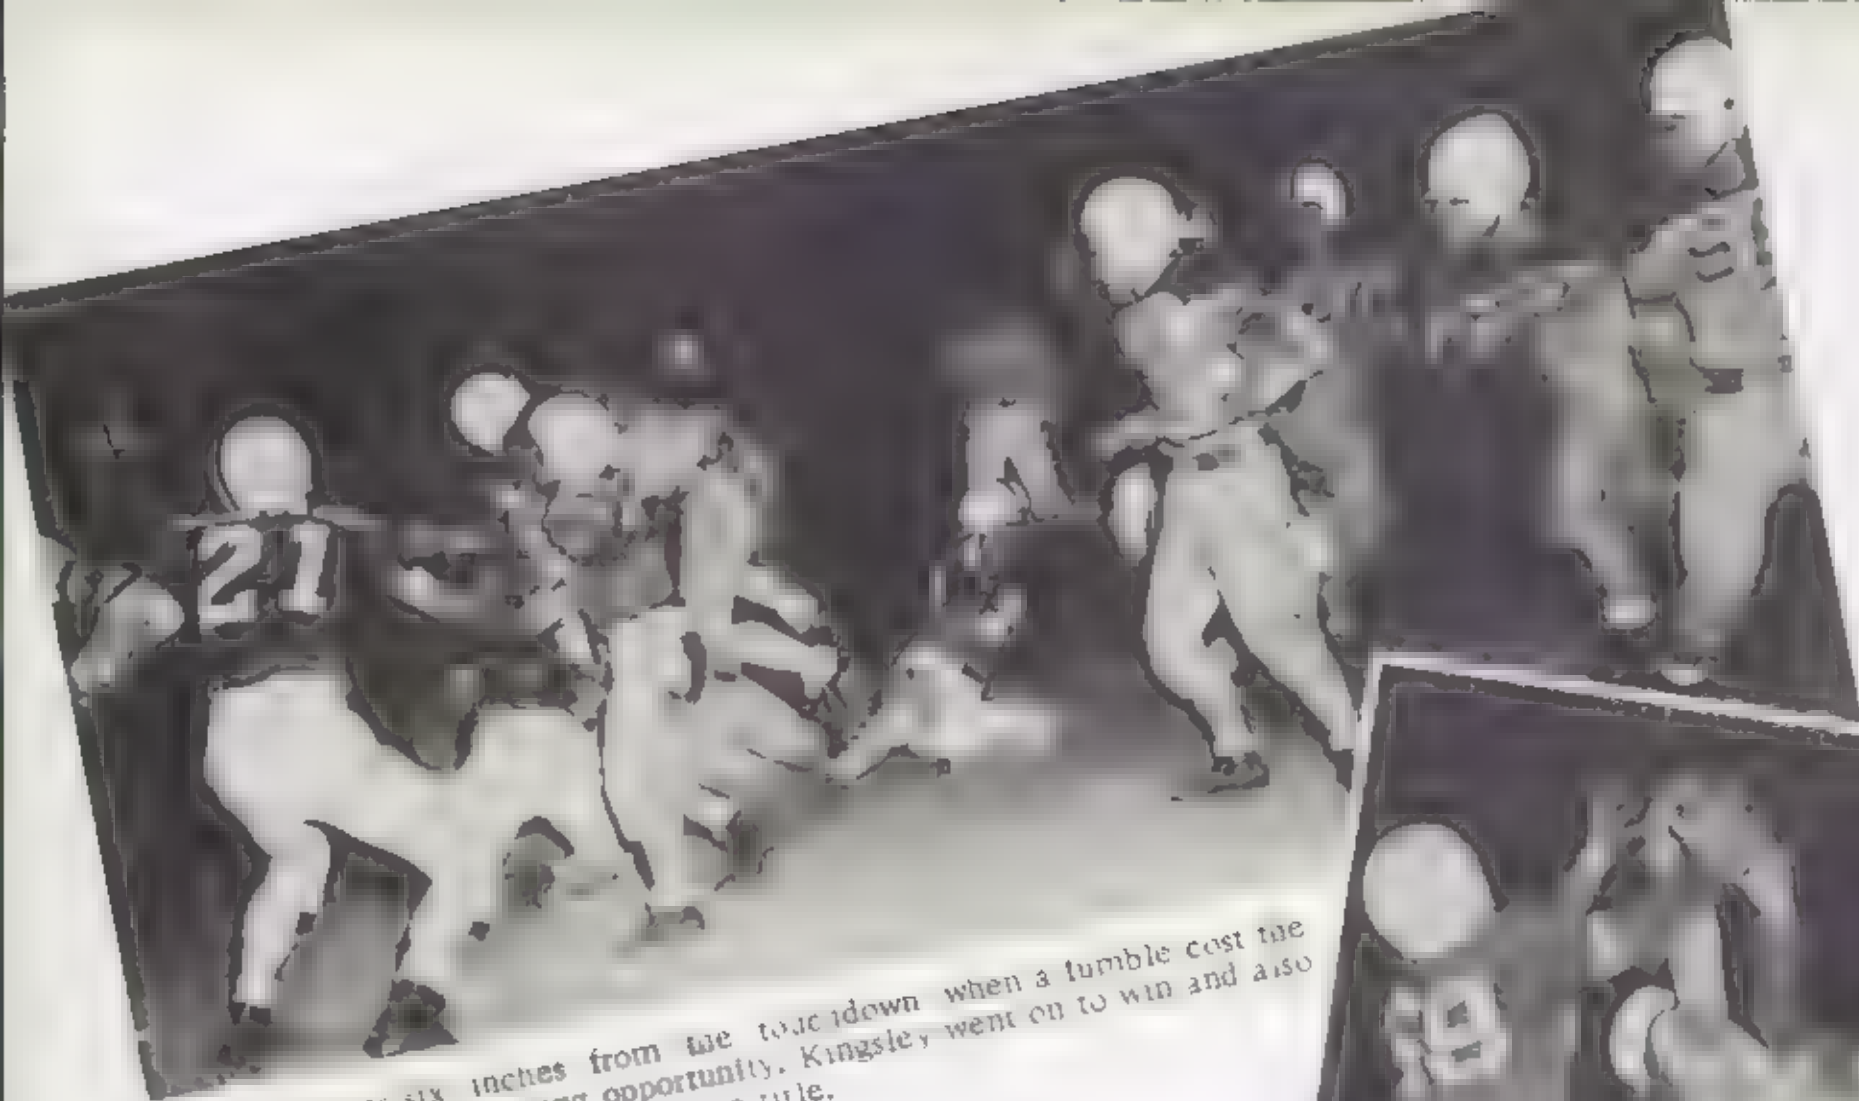

Gary Hogue--Tackle. Gary was strong and powerful and when he got his head down on defense he was even more so. Two of his were the outstanding tackles of the season, one against Early and another against Sac.

Bill Kasperon--Tackle. "Bill" was the heaviest man on the squad at 178 pounds. He will be good company to have around next year.

LaDon Hoefling--Halfback. "Bub" earned his letter last year as an end--this year he became the team's leading ground gainer and scorer as halfback.

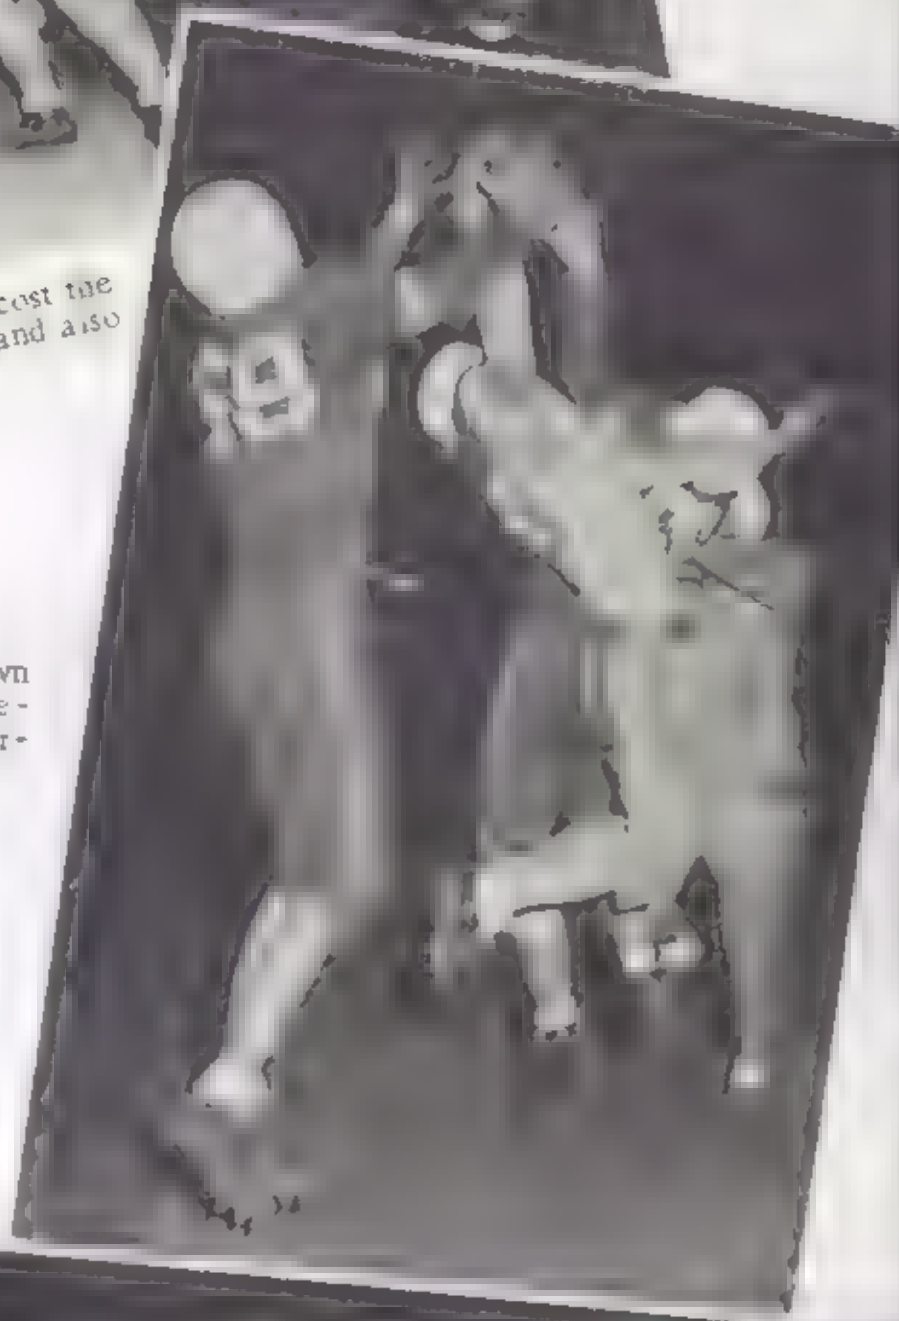

Jim Neutzman--Halfback. It's not often a sophomore is chosen as a starter and first team regular, but "Neutz" had the qualities designed to keep him at the top. He finished as the second leading ground gainer with a 5-yd average. We're looking forward to years ahead with Jim.

Odebolt was six inches from the touchdown when a fumble cost the Trojans their golden scoring opportunity. Kingsley went on to win and also to take the Maple Valley Conference title.

Believe it or not "Bub" came down from this leap and ran several yards before he was stopped by one of our Marcus opponents.

Wot hoppined? After the dust settled we discovered that Correctionville had completed a pass, but it wasn't long enough, and Odebolt took possession of the ball deep in their own territory.

Manilla plugs up the center of the line as sophomore Jim Nuetzman attempts a delayed-cross play.

Quarterback Keith McDonough throws a key block to ward off an Early tackler while La Don Hoefling (not in picture) carries the ball nearer pay dirt.

In the last game of the season, La Don Hoefling, along with guard John Miller stops Holstein short of the goal-line. However, on the next play the steamed-up Pirates score.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

Won 9 Lost 9

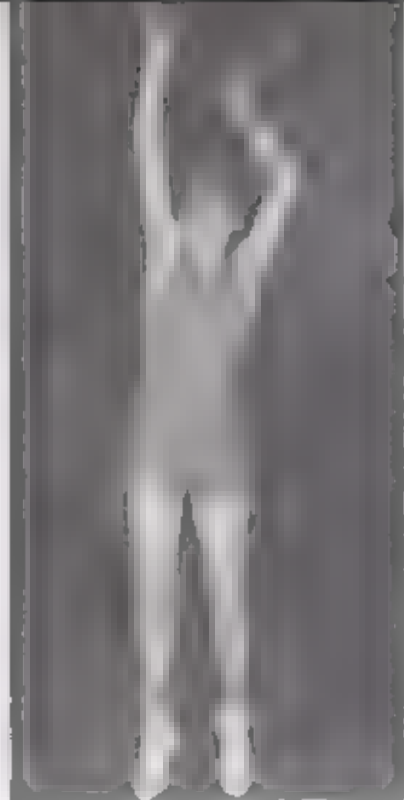

In looking back to the 1953-54 boys' basketball season, one should remember that four of six regulars were underclassmen with only seniors Richardson and Roberts and junior LaDon Hoefling having had previous experience. It should also be pointed out that five of the teams encountered through the season were each at one time rated as one of the best in northwest Iowa--Alta, Correctionville, Lytton, Early, and Sac City. These things, coupled with the fact that because of illness, eligibility, and injury the starting lineup was changed eight times through the year, leaves one with the thought that the Trojan record for '54 is a surprising one after all.

In winning nine games, the Trojanmen averaged 55 points per game, a very respectable offensive average. They hit 38% of the field goal attempts and 52% of the free throws. Offensively they ranked high. Two earlier defeats by Schaller and Wall Lake were avenged quite definitely in the county tourney. The Trojans defeated Wall Lake 49-36 in the Consolation round. Early beat Odebolt in the second round of the county tourney and twice other times in the season. (Early finished their season in the sub-state tournament.)

Other highlights of the season would include the Charter Oak game, in which Odebolt scored 5 points in 15 seconds to tie the score and then moved out to win in the overtime; the hard fought Holstein game, the one point loss to Denison; and, of course, the best game of the season against Sac City in the finals of the sectional. The improvement in play shown in this game was indicative of the spirit maintained by the boys throughout the season. Seniors Terry Roberts and Dean Richardson had spectacular nights. Roberts hit 71% his field goal attempts to lead the scoring and Richardson was second high.

Yes, we will remember the spirit and the tremendous improvement shown by the Trojans throughout the basketball season of 1953-54.

TERRY ROBERTS - senior-forward. Terry averaged 12.75 points per game, for 20 games, hit 49% of field goals attempted and 68% of free throws. Terry, the Terrible, had his best night in last game against Sac City, hitting 10 out of 14 shots from the floor.

BILL HALBOTH-junior-center. Bill averaged 14.6 points per game and led in that department. He was one of the top rebounders along with Richardson and Martiens. "Skeets" had the most chances at the free throw line, getting 68 gift points out of 136 tries.

LADON HOEFLING-junior-guard. "Bub" averaged 12.3 points per game and handled the chores of play-maker. Against Charter Oak he had quite a hand in tying the score after Odebolt trailed 5 points with only 15 seconds remaining. We won the game going away (74-65) in the 3 minute over time.

DEAN RICHARDSON-senior-guard-Dean often was given the most difficult defensive assignment. "Martins'" best nights were against the toughest competition. He was outstanding in thrillers--lost to Early, 41-47 and Sac City, 51-55. Dean was considered the spark plug of the team.

BOB MARTIENS-junior-forward-center. Bob saw action in all of the last nine games, but was ineligible for the first semester's games. His height was an aid in rebounding and the doublepost offense seemed to fit the needs of the rest of the team. Bob will be of tremendous value next season.

BOB GIRVIN-sophomore-forward. The only sophomore to break into the lineup this season, Bob showed a great desire to play and improve. A good shot--Bob ended the season hitting better than 40% of his shots.

GARY HOGUE-junior-guard. Gary played in most of the early games of the season. He started the Lytton and Alta, one of his best games, along with the Charter Oak game. A good shot from out Gary should add scoring punch to next year's squad.

JERRY IVERSEN-junior forward-guard. Jerry was impressive in the early season and started the first five ball games. His lack of height was a drawback for him and this, as is always the case, had to be overcome with speed and aggressiveness.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

1953-'54 Season

Won 19 Lost 3

The Trojanettes completed one of the best basketball seasons in the history of the school. For the third consecutive year they won the girls' Sac County Tournament. They defeated Nemaha 62-36, Auburn 73-34, and Wall Lake 68-64. This was the first time in fifteen years the girls have advanced to the district tournament. They did so by defeating Kiron 64-36, Lake View 72-30 and Wall Lake 62-53 in sectional games. In district play the Trojanettes had a very cold night against Farnhamville and lost 62-42. The girls hit only 21 per cent of their shots for the poorest shooting of the season. Farnhamville meanwhile was hitting a good per cent of their shots for the difference in the score. The Trojanettes redeemed themselves however by defeating Boone in the consolation game 82-68. Boone was regarded as one of the toughest teams in central Iowa.

This season was especially enjoyable because of the terrific spirit and desire of the girls. With everyone on the squad working hard and striving for a position on the team, competition for these positions became great. This strong competition made our reserve strength greater than the previous year and consequently we had a much better ball team. The Trojanettes scored 1410 points for an offensive average of 64 points a game and held their opponents to 1046 points for a defensive average of 47.5 points per game.

The season brought an end to the careers of five wonderful seniors. They are Jean Stock, Nancy Scott, Frances Ogren, Joanne Hummel, and Margaret Einspahr. All five girls gave commendable performances throughout the year and will be very hard to replace next season.

Jean Stock had an exceptionally good year working in the post forward position. She was one of the highest scorers in the state scoring 680 points in 22 games for an average of 30.9 points per game. She ended her career as being the highest scorer on record in Odebolt's history. Her four year total was 1654 points. Jean, along with Nancy Scott and Frances Ogren was chosen for honorable mention on two all-state selections, the Iowa Daily Press, and Register-Tribune.

Prospects for next season are about average. We should have another good team if the girls have the spirit, desire and cooperation of the past season. We're hoping for some new prospects to bolster our reserve strength and provide strong competition for the returning letter winners.

JEAN STOCK-senior-forward. We had one of the best post forwards in the state in Jean Stock. She scored 680 points for an average of 30.9 points per game. Against Schaller, she broke the schools' individual scoring record by making 54 points.

NANCY SCOTT-senior-forward. Nancy scored 364 points for the season, an average of 16.5 points per game--669 points in all three years. Her fabulous hook shots and passes were a definite asset to the ball team. Nancy's lack of height was offset by her terrific speed.

FREIDA MILLER-sophomore-forward. Freida can fake a guard out of position without difficulty and was one of our best out shooters. She score 235 points in 22 games, for an average of 10.6 points per game. With two years to go, Freida should be one of the best forwards in this territory.

JUNITH GUNDERSON-junior-forward. Junith has a good attitude and personality along with terrific spirit. If she develops confidence in herself, the fans will see Junith contribute her share of points next year. This season Junith could have scored more but she passed the ball to a teammate and gave her the opportunity to do the scoring.

FRANCES OGREN-senior-guard. Frances made the switch from forward to guard this year and did a terrific job in the back court. She was a real floor general, a great competitor, and a most consistent player. She had a wonderful attitude along with great spirit.

SHIRLEY SCHOMER-junior-guard. We have the good fortune of having Shirley return to play guard for us next year. If she improves as much next season as she did this year, Shirley could be one of the best guards in this territory. Her attitude is wonderful along with a great desire to play basketball.

JOANNE HUMMEL-senior-guard. Joanne was one of the best rebounders on the squad. We could also rely on her to bring the ball up-court no matter how tough the forwards played. Joanne's attitude was good; she will be very hard to replace next season.

MARGARET EINSPAHR-senior-guard. Margaret missed participating in basketball last season under doctor's orders, but she overcame this handicap and gave a very commendable performance. Margaret had terrific spirit and was always in the right place at the right time. We will miss Margaret very much next season.

ELLEN DRESSELHUIS-sophomore-guard. Ellen filled the opening we had at post guard this season. Her guarding and rebounding ability improved as the season progressed and she gave many post forwards a bad time. If Ellen has as much determination and desire to play basketball next season she should be terrific. We expect great things of her.

JEAN HANSON-Freshman-forward and guard. One of the most versatile girls on the squad, she could play guard or forward equally well. We hope Jean can take over where Jean Stock left off at post forward. She has a number of different shots and makes a good percent of them. Jean has a great desire to play basketball and with three years remaining should be an outstanding forward.

On October 23, Homecoming activities started at 3:15 with a big parade and pep rally down town. Reigning over all the festivities was Jean Stock, queen, elected from the Senior Class of O. H. S. Her attendants, also elected by the student body, were Emily Bergman and Jeanine Buehler, Juniors; Carol Herrig and Judy McDonough, Sophomores; Mary Dinges, Jesse Charles Purdy, Sheryl Schroeder and Steven Thayer, Kindergarten. Both parents of each of the Kindergarten attendants were O. H. S. Alumni.

Preceding the crowning ceremony, which was held before the Sac City game, the royal party circled the field in convertibles and were escorted to the platform. Jeanine was escorted by Keith McDonough, Emily by Richard Treman, Carol by Roger Barkley, and Judy by Dean Richardson. Queen Jean was escorted by Terry Roberts and crowned by the captains of the game, Norman Bengford and Jim Taphorn.

SKIP DAY

Early in the morning of May the 10th, 36 of us seniors congregated in front of the Brower Hotel together with Mr. Ogden, a bus driver, and a bus. The occasion of course was the Senior Skip Day. The plans had been made some time before, but in order to "be different" we had decided to keep our plans secret and so no one but us knew the when and the where of the traditional Skip Day.

At 6:30 A. M. the bus took off for Omaha. At approximately 9:00 the day's activities were under way with a visit to famous Boys' Town. After a long, interesting tour of the grounds and buildings, we once again boarded the bus to head back into Omaha and we took an hour off for lunch. The next item on our program was a well-guarded tour of the Federal Reserve Bank of Omaha. "Well guarded?" you ask. How many of you have held a million dollars in one hand? Following that we were on our own till 9 P.M. Shopping, visiting, movies, plane riding constituted the days activities for most of us, and then it was time--time to pile in the bus for the last leg of the trip and head for home. It had been a good day--one to remember. What happened on the way home??? We'll never tell!!!

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

The Odebolt F. F. A. is the local chapter of our largest farm youth organization, the Future Farmers of America. The F. F. A. is built upon the motto: "Learning to Do; Doing to Learn; Earning to Live; Living to serve." The F. F. A. also develops the members in co-operation, leadership, character, thrift, service, knowledge of improvements in agriculture, and the ability to have fun in organized recreation.

The members elected the following boys as officers to lead them in the activities for 1953-1954: President, Terry Roberts; Vice President, Marlin Gunderson; Secretary, Vernon King; Treasurer, Harold Miller; Reporter, Bob Scanlon; Sentinel, Paul Bengford.

In order to obtain a plan of activities for 1953-1954 a program of work was established, which enabled the chapter to carry on its work. Some of the activities that were included in the program of work are as follows:

Supervised Practice - The executive committee, which is composed of the officers, had each member select a project for the year and keep records on that project.

Co-operative Activities - The members of the chapter cooperated in having a Parent and Son Banquet in the spring and selling garden seeds and seed potatoes during mid-winter.

Community Service - The members served the community by sponsoring a soil-testing and seed-testing service for farmers.

Leadership Activities - During the months of March and April the chapter sent participants to the district contests and delegates to the state convention.

Conduct of Meetings - This committee was responsible for encouraging members to wear F. F. A. jackets and pins, also to use parliamentary procedure during meetings.

Earnings and Savings - This committee which was directed by the treasurer was to operate the thrift bank and suggest means for collecting money to operate the chapter.

Recreation - Through this committee the chapter sponsored a hayride and roller skating party and many other organized recreational activities.

Publicity - Through the actions of this committee, there were many articles concerning the chapter printed in the local newspaper and the F. F. A.'s Northwest District Iowa News Letter.

Under Mr. Lynn, vocational agriculture instructor, the boys studied various aspects of farm management, some of which included: How to feed livestock efficiently; Care and use of farm buildings; and Budgeting the farm income.

The chapter, although impossibly small, was highly successful during the year of 1953-1954.

TROJAN STAFF

Those of us on the Annual Staff, whether elected or appointed, have had one goal; that has been to have an annual that would be unique when compared with the TROJANS of the past. We feel this has been accomplished through the changes and revisions which have been incorporated in this 1954 TROJAN.

In the spring of 1953, the class of '54 met to elect the personnel for the top three positions on the staff. They were Roger Barkley, editor-in-chief, Janice Godbersen, assistant editor; and Terry Roberts, business manager. Judging from their accomplishments, the rest of the staff, which were appointed, must have gone into high gear immediately and stayed in high gear until the job was completed.

Richard Treman, Norman Bengtord, and John Krusenstjerna solicited this and near-by communities to obtain donors and advertisers for this year's Trojan. They, through their concerted efforts, visited more business places and received more money than has ever before been collected by any annual staff. Keith McDonough and Dean Richardson were responsible for lining up the picture-taking schedule and were called upon to see that the necessary people were in the right place at the right time. Jean Stock and Janice Turin had the very important job of layout editors. They placed every picture on every page which is a big job in itself. Norma Luitjens and Nadine Noyd did our typing and prepared all the copy for the entire book. Nimble fingers were never more appreciated than on that assignment. Donna Linden was in charge of subscription sales and of the very successful annual sales carnival, at which we gathered in $500 in forty-five minutes. Together, those thirteen people with the yearbook sponsor, Miss Bruce, who was helpful at all times in all the different phases of this book's production, have labored long and diligently and are reaping reward in this, the finished 1954 TROJAN.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY, "GREEN VALLEY"

BY FRANK WATTRON

Nestled away in the California hills is tiny, picturesque Green Valley owned for a hundred years by the Berry family. Grampaw Berry himself, it was--a straight-thinking, straight-shooting pioneer--who staked out the original claim back in gold rush days. But Eldon Berry, the last of the line, is about to lose it to the unscrupulous hands of one Tobias J. Everheel.

Right now, the loss will be doubly painful. Strangely, unaccountably, Green Valley has become a little paradise of nature. Everything is growing in rampant profusion. Most unusual of all is Eldon's cow, Minnie, who imbibes from the renewed bubbling spring and gives gallons of rare milk--milk so rare that those who drink it hear weird music and see people . . . people who officially stopped walking the earth many years before.

You don't believe it? Well, Prim Stokes, the vital native girl in love with Eldon, didn't believe it until, stirred from their eternal rest by the noise of Everheel's tractor and the threat to their Valley, Eldon's ancestors are "riz". Peppery Grampaw, Granny who insists on hooks and eyes instead of buttons and bows, gruff Calhoun, bearded Jeb, mechanical-minded Lonesome, gigantic Powerful, giggle-witted Ransome, and all the rest have come back to fight, to laugh, to love--till they finally and dramatically fade away on the waters of Everheel's exploded dam just as the cocky crowing of Ol Arthur, "the herald of the morn," brings them back.

And now another school year is finished, but we can live it over and over again as we leaf through the pages of the 1954 Trojan. We have endeavored to chronicle the complete story of our senior year in Odebolt High School--its successes, its disappointments, its good times, or, to carry out our analogy, we might say its bumper crops, its dust storms, and its drenching rains.

In compiling this record, we have come to realize that yearbook production is an undertaking of major proportions. It has required the combined efforts of student body, faculty, administration, and the community at large.

A yearbook is primarily a pictorial record of a school year, and so photography plays a large part in its success. We of the 1954 staff have been exceedingly fortunate in that Loren Baber took over the Skylight Studio in time to do our photographic work. Practically all the pictures in this book are his work. We thank you, Mr. Baber, for the time and effort you have so generously expended in our behalf.

As in past years, Miss Bruce's assistance has been invaluable. We who have been on the yearbook staff realize how much time she has devoted to our project, and we deeply appreciate her advice, her know-how, and the work she has done for us.

Mr. Hedstrom, American Yearbook Company representative, has been most helpful and has given us the benefit of his knowledge in publication essentials. We are grateful to him for his visits and his suggestions.

Our thanks are due to the entire faculty for their forbearance. We know our picture-taking has disrupted classes, no matter how carefully we tried to plan it, and our teachers have been most patient.

Of course, an undertaking of this size carries with it many financial burdens. The question arose many times, "But will we have the money?" Through the financial assistance of the businesses of this and neighboring communities, we did have the money to create, what we of the Trojan staff feel is, a fine yearbook. We are very grateful for the support accorded us.

It's been a hard push at times. Often we have thought that we could use a few more hours in a day, what with athletics, music, speech, and yearbook all clamoring for our attention. But we believe we have met the challenge and have a yearbook worthy of our class. We hope our readers like it too.
